

ESCOLA ESTADUAL JOSÉ GABRIEL DE OLIVEIRA
	Subject:	English	Bimester	Class
	Teacher:	Paulo Corrêa	4th
	Student:			Grade
	Date:		Value	10,0 pontos
	Evaluation:	The Little Prince

1. What is Drawing Number One supposed to represent?

2. Where does the narrator's plane crash?

- In the Amazon rainforest.
- In the Gobi desert.
- In the Sahara desert.
- On an unnamed island.

3. What is the first thing the Little Prince asks to the pilot to do?

4. What is the Earth name for the Little Prince's home planet?

- Mars.
- Asteroid B-612.
- Asteroid MU-330.
- Asteroid D-814.

5. Why does the narrator make note of the name and astronomical history of the Little Prince's home planet?

- Because he feels such details are vital to our understanding of the little prince.
- As a sign of respect for modern science.
- Because the Little Prince asked him to.
- As a concession to grown-ups, who view the world in a quantitative way.

6. What drawing does the narrator say he worked especially hard on?

- The little prince.
- The baobabs.
- The fox.
- The Saharan landscape.

7. Who does the Little Prince love?

- Baobabs.
- A geographer.
- A rose.
- A lamplighter.

8. Why does the Little Prince leave his planet?

- He begins to doubt the rose's sincerity.
- He wants to visit Earth.
- The rose yells at him.
- A sheep eats his rose.

9. Why is the rose certain she can defend herself?

- She has four thorns.
- No large animals exist on the prince's planet.
- Large animals eat princes, not roses.
- The prince draws her a guard dog.

10. Who does the Prince meet on the six planets before visiting Earth?

Check the right answers below.

- An architect.
- An engineer.
- A king.
- A lawyer.
- A mechanic.
- A vain man.
- A scientist.
- A butcher.
- A gardener.
- A drunkard.
- A hairdresser.
- A nurse.
- A businessman.
- A lamplighter.
- An economist.
- A geographer.
- A waiter..
- A baker
- A thief.

11. Why does the discovery of the rose garden make the Little Prince sad?

- He discovers he is allergic to roses.
- He realizes he fell in love too quickly.
- He sees how ugly roses really are.
- He learns that his rose is not the only rose in the universe.

12. How does the fox define to “tame?”

- “To soften the spirit”.
- “To establish ties”..
- “To learn to love”
- “To master another being”.

13. According to the fox, what makes the Prince’s rose so important?

14. On his planet, what does the Little Prince place over the rose at night?

- A screen.
- A glass jar.
- A warm hat.
- A warm blanket.

15. What does the narrator say is most important to him in the story’s final chapter?

- Whether the prince’s flower still has thorns.
- Whether the Little Prince is alive.
- Who actually owns all the stars in the universe.
- Whether the sheep has eaten the prince’s rose.

