

The Little Prince Quiz

1. What is Drawing Number One supposed to depict?

- An elephant inside a boa constrictor.
- A hat.
- The baobabs..
- The fox.

2. Where does the narrator's plane crash?

- In the Amazon rainforest.
- In the Gobi desert.
- In the Sahara desert.
- On an unnamed island.

3. What is the first thing the little prince asks of the pilot?

- To help him find the snake.
- To draw him a sheep.
- To listen to the story of the fox.
- To draw a picture of the baobabs.

4. What is the Earth name for the little prince's home planet?

- Mars.
- Asteroid b-612.
- Asteroid mu-330.
- Asteroid d-814.

5. Why does the narrator make note of the name and astronomical history of the little prince's home planet?

- Because he feels such details are vital to our understanding of the little prince.
- As a sign of respect for modern science.
- Because the little prince asked him to.
- As a concession to grown-ups, who view the world in a quantitative way.

6. What drawing does the narrator say he worked especially hard on?

- The little prince.
- The baobabs.
- The fox.
- The Saharan landscape.

7. Whom does the little prince love?

- Baobabs.
- A geographer.
- A rose.

A lamplighter.

8. Why does the little prince leave his planet?

He begins to doubt the rose's sincerity.

He wants to visit Earth.

The rose yells at him.

A sheep eats his rose.

9. Why is the rose certain she can defend herself?

She has four thorns.

No large animals exist on the prince's planet.

Large animals eat princes, not roses.

The prince draws her a guard dog.

10. Whom does the prince meet on the first planet he visits?

A geographer.

A businessman.

A king.

A conceited man.

11. Whom does the prince meet on the second planet?

A businessman.

A vain man.

A drunkard.

A lamplighter.

12. Whom does the prince meet on the third planet?

A king.

A drunkard.

A geographer.

A businessman.

13. Whom does the prince meet on the fourth planet?

A businessman..

A lamplighter.

The narrator.

A geographer.

14. Whom does the prince meet on the fifth planet?

A geographer.

A three-petaled flower.

A businessman.

A lamplighter.

15. Whom does the prince meet on the sixth planet?

- A geographer..
- His rose.
- A lamplighter.
- A drunkard.

16. Who is the first being the prince meets on Earth?

- The pilot.
- The snake.
- The fox.
- A hunter.

17. Why does the discovery of the rose garden make the little prince sad?

- He discovers he is allergic to roses.
- He realizes he fell in love too quickly.
- He sees how ugly roses really are.
- He learns that his rose is not the only rose in the universe.

18. How does the fox define to “tame?”

- “To soften the spirit”.
- “To establish ties”.
- “To learn to love”.
- “To master another being”.

19. According to the fox, what makes the prince’s rose so important?

- Her four thorns can serve as weapons..
- The time the prince has spent caring for her.
- The coquettish way she expresses her love.
- Her unmatched beauty.

20. After talking with the little prince, what does the pilot realize makes the desert beautiful?

- It hides a well somewhere.
- There are no grown-ups around to dirty it.
- The grains of sand glitter like the stars in the sky.
- Death is always beautiful.

21. Why does the pilot worry about the little prince’s departure?

- The little prince is the only person who can find water.
- Without the little prince, he will be unable to fix his own plane.
- The prince’s plans involve a deadly snakebite.
- The prince is vital to the Earth’s safety.

22. What sort of pills does the salesclerk the little prince meets sell?

- Pills that send people back to where they came from.
- Thirst-quenching pills.
- Pills that cause hallucinations.
- Rose-garden pills.

23. What does the narrator say is most important to him in the story's final chapter?

- Whether the prince's flower still has thorns.
- Whether the little prince is alive.
- Who actually owns all the stars in the universe.
- Whether the sheep has eaten the prince's rose.

24. On his planet, what does the little prince place over the rose at night?

- A screen.
- A glass jar.
- A warm hat..
- A warm blanket.

25. What is the narrator's occupation?

- Geographer.
- Railway switchman.
- Pilot.
- Salesman.